1. Work on the scheduled expansion of the Perleberg (M 54/T 70) airfield had not started in mid-September 1950. After the harvest farmers from Sueckow (M 54/T 70) had to abandon their land which bordered the airfield on the northwest. The landing field was still released as pasture land.
2. Ten to 12 soldiers who wore red service color guarded the buildings at the field. Prior to 22 September 1950 they were relieved daily by soldiers who were taken from the barracks buildings in the town to the field by truck
